Scripture Foundation

Scripture Foundation

"I have come that they may have life and have it abundantly." – John 10:10

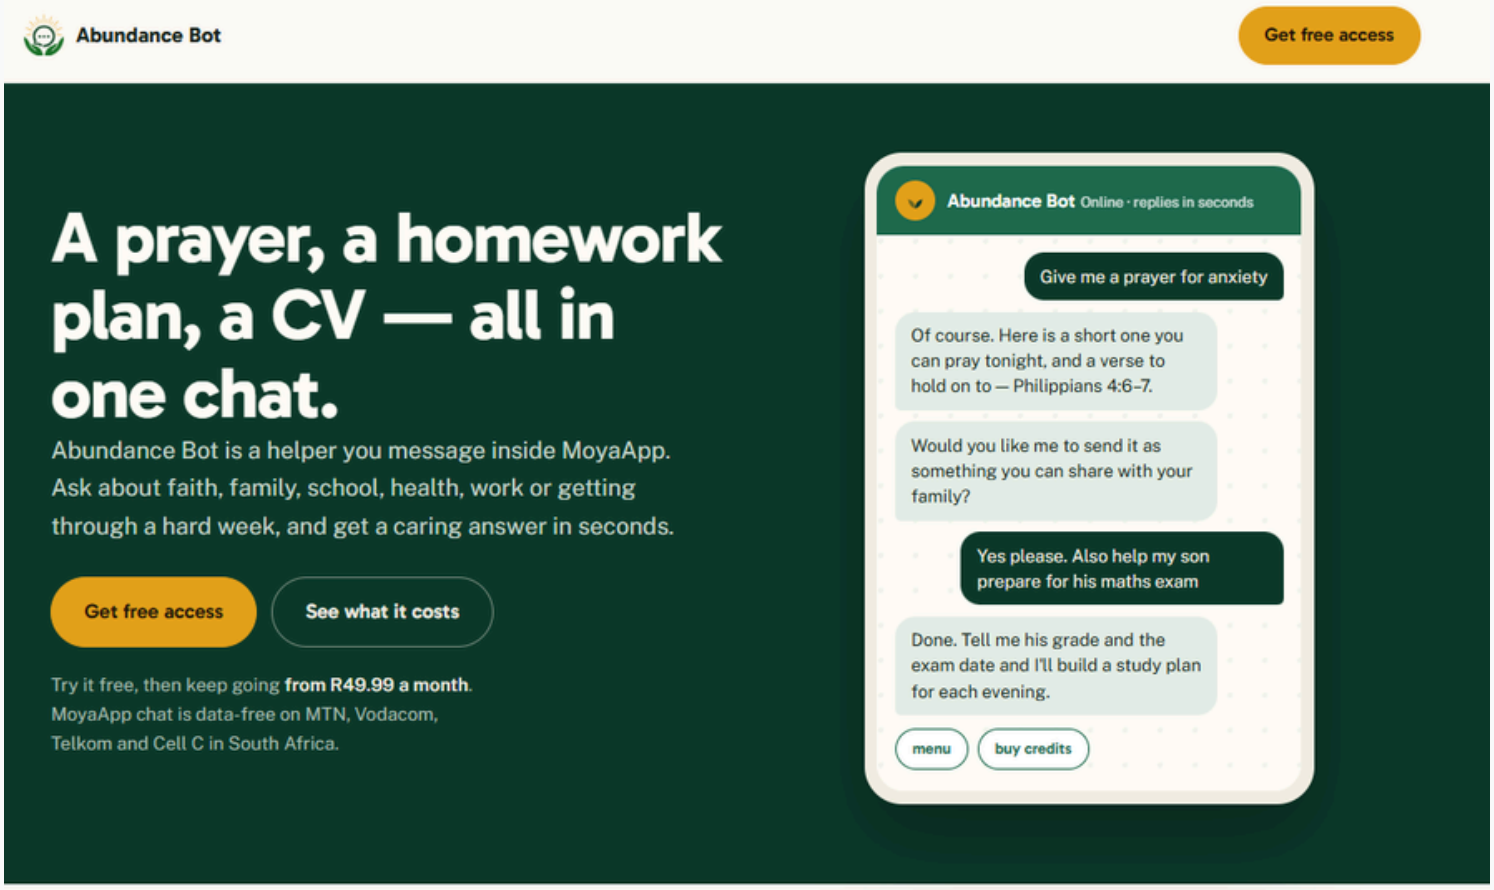

Communities of Abundance exists to restore spiritual foundations within schools so that communities may experience abundant life. Schools serve as spiritual influence centres, leadership hubs and community gateways.

The September 2026 report therefore reflects not only which programmes were implemented, but how those programmes are contributing to a broader transformation pathway - moving schools from spiritual identity and values formation toward character and culture development, purpose and calling, economic restoration and long-term community impact.

The purpose of this report is to demonstrate how CoA is building depth before expansion: stabilising school relationships, aligning leadership, embedding partner programmes and preparing the model for multiplication into 40 schools.

nvesting in One Mother, Inspiring the Next Generation

A story of perseverance, education and hope

Through the support of a SETA-sponsored bursary, Alashaan Slinger, a 48-year-old single mother of three, is pursuing her Further Education and Training Certificate in Early Childhood Development (ECD) at NQF Level 4 through Edu-Build Institute.

Despite facing challenges along the way, Alashaan remains on track with her studies and continues to do her best to achieve her qualification. Her progress report reflects outstanding academic performance, including an impressive 91% for her first-semester assessment, earning her a distinction.

But Alashaan's journey represents more than an academic achievement. It is also a powerful example to her children, particularly her Grade 4 daughter, who is currently an A student. By continuing to pursue her own education despite life's challenges, Alashaan is demonstrating the value of perseverance, commitment and lifelong learning.

Her journey reminds us that when we invest in a person's potential, the impact can extend far beyond the individual. It can inspire children, strengthen families and help create a future in which the next generation believes in the possibilities that education can unlock.

At Communities of Abundance, we believe that meaningful change begins when people are given opportunities to grow, develop and build a better future. Alashaan's story is an encouraging reminder of what such opportunities can mean — not only for one mother, but for the family she inspires every day.

One opportunity. One determined mother. A legacy of learning for the next generation.

We celebrate Alashaan's progress and wish her continued success as she works towards completing her qualification.
